

Australian Voice Over Talent

Bret Murray is the boy next door that's in no hurry with a relaxed voice style that's easy to listen to, giving a smooth delivery with a crisp, clean sound and available 6 days, Monday through Saturday.

An upbeat, fresh and vibrant voice for narration, radio imaging voice overs, TV promos, commercials, liners, sweepers, ID's, on hold voice prompts, Internet voice talent, animation and film, don't look any further for an Australian Voice Over talent!

Experience

Utilising an AT4033 session microphone, Pro Tools 10 with an audiophile 192 sound card via a Yamaha O2R console and a voice booth your audio will be high quality.

I have been voicing commercials and imaging spots for Australian stations for both radio and television, on a regular basis, and now globally!

As a competent and imaginative producer Bret understands both the technical and vocal aspects of a read and will deliver - email now for that quick spot or demo read!
